Student expectations:

- Students must bring their own supplies (paper, pencils, calculator, etc.) to tutoring. However, all textbooks are available for student use in the tutoring classroom.
- Students must be on time.
- Students must complete ALL of their homework assignments first, then if time permits they may work on extra practice materials.
- Students must show their work to Mrs. Williams and turn in a completed EXIT ticket everyday.
- Inappropriate classroom behavior will not be permitted and may result in removal from the tutoring program.

Students may expect the tutoring program to provide:

- A certified teacher to assist with homework assignments and projects.
- Extra practice in academic courses and FCAT.
- Extra credit on their final nine weeks grade. See back for details.

EXTRA CREDIT POLICY

Students attending tutoring have the OPPORTUNITY to earn and receive extra credit points in their classes. To earn extra credit points:

- Students must work for a full 30 minutes to receive a 0.5 (half) point extra credit on their final nine week's grade. Points are added up and given to teachers at the end of the grading period.
- Students must have a passing grade in the homework, class work and projects category of their grade in order to receive their extra credit points.

Classroom procedures:

1. As you enter the classroom, pick up an EXIT ticket and write the time you arrived on the ticket.
2. Begin working on homework assignments.
3. If you do not have homework, begin working on an extra practice assignment.
4. If you need assistance, raise your hand.
5. When you have completed all of your work, show it to Mrs. Williams and turn in your completed EXIT ticket. STUDENTS MUST TURN IN A COMPLETED EXIT TICKET TO RECEIVE EXTRA CREDIT POINTS.
